

Graduate School of Global Studies and CISMOR (Center for Interdisciplinary Study of Monotheistic Religions), Doshisha University in Kyoto, Japan will hold

International Conference
Peace and Security in the Middle East: Alternative Ways to Democratization

Saturday February 16, 2013
Room 101, Shikokan, Karasuma Campus
Doshisha University, Kyoto

【 Speakers / Discussants / Chairs 】

Norman Cook

Former Executive Policy Director in Charge of the Middle East and Africa at CIDA(Canadian International Development Agency), Advisor to the Project “Conflict Prevention in the Middle East”

Nursin Ateşoğlu Güney

Professor, Department of International Relations, Yıldız Technical University

Peter Wagner

Research Fellow of the Hungarian Institute of International Affairs

Ryoji Tateyama

Professor of the Department of International Relations, National Defense Academy of Japan

Satoru Nakamura

Associate Professor of the Graduate School of Inter-cultural Studies, Kobe University

Hisae Nakanishi

Team Leader of the Project “Conflict Mitigation in the Middle East,” Professor of the Graduate School of Global Studies, Doshisha University

Elisa Montiel-Welti

JSPS Scholar, Graduate School of Global Studies, Doshisha University

【 Program 】

09:30-10:00 Keynote speech by Hisae Nakanishi

10:00-11:20 Session 1 Chair: Satoru Nakamura

- Failure of the Isolation Policy against Hamas by Ryoji Tateyama
Discussant: Nurşin Ateşoğlu Güney

- Preparing for the Endgame in Syria
: Lessons Learned from EU and NATO's Involvement in the Libyan Civil War
by Peter Wagner
Discussant: Norman Cook

11:20-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-12:10 Session 1 – Discussion Chair: Satoru Nakamura

12:10-13:40 Lunch Break

13:40-15:00 Session 2 Chair: Ryoji Tateyama

- Conflict Escalation and the Reshaping of Foreign Policies toward the Arc of Conflict
by Norman Cook
Discussant: Hisae Nakanishi

- Turkey's Nuclear Policy in the Face of Iran's Debatable Nuclear Program
by Nurşin Ateşoğlu Güney
Discussant: Peter Wagner

15:00-15:10 Coffee Break

15:10-16:10 Session 3 : General Discussion Chair: Elisa Montiel-Welti

16:10-16:20 Summary & Closing Remark by Hisae Nakanishi